

I oppose voice cell conversations but would fully support cellular, WiFi, or other internet connectivity, so I can be productive while traveling without infringing on fellow passengers. Keep the conversations quiet, but please allow non-voice/data Cellular connections.